

ICT Contracts

Your Source for Information and Communications Technology (ICT) Solutions.

Increase your Technology Buying Power today.

DIR invites you to the Power to Purchase Technology Expo
in Austin, Texas on April 30, 2009, at the Palmer Events Center.

This FREE, ONE-DAY EXPO is an opportunity to learn how you can maximize your technology buying power using the Information and Communications Technology (ICT) Contracts program. ICT Contracts is a streamlined cooperative purchasing program for state and local government, public education, and other public entities within and outside the state of Texas. At DIR, we are committed to providing the technology products and services you need.

Registration is now open.
Visit the Expo homepage at www.dir.state.tx.us/powerpurchase and click on "Attendee Registration."

Who SHOULD ATTEND?

Information technology (IT) and purchasing staff from state agencies, local and county government, K-12, and higher education.

What are the BENEFITS?

This Expo will showcase leading technology products and services, gather DIR-contracted technology vendors under one roof, and show you how to maximize your technology buying power through DIR's information and communications technology contracts. The Expo has been customized to meet the needs of state, local, and education sectors. Concurrent breakout sessions will be offered on topics ranging from ICT Contracts training, new products/services on contract, emerging technology, and other technology issues facing the public sector today. The agenda is now available from the homepage.

- Earn continuing education credit with informative training sessions
- Discover how to use the ICT Contracts program and take advantage of the money- and time-saving opportunities
- Learn about available technology products and services
- Meet exclusively with DIR-contracted vendors throughout the day in the Exhibit Hall
- Interact with DIR contract managers

What does it COST?

The Expo is FREE to all government and public entity personnel.
